

A CULTURE OF WELCOME

Our university warmly welcomes all people and practices equal rights for everyone - regardless of social or ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation, world views, age, or physical and mental condition.

In order to integrate new students into daily life at the university quickly, the institutes and student council run introduction days at the start of every semester together with the university administration and leadership.

→ Back to the mission statement