

Composition (instrumental) – Artistic postgraduate studies - concert exam

Multi-stage procedure

1st step	Examination of the submitted compositions
----------	---

Prerequisite for admission to the aptitude test is proof of a very good degree from the previous degree programme with a diploma or master's degree in composition (in the main subject at least 1.7 or comparable). An expert opinion from a teacher at a conservatoire on outstanding talent as well as own compositions must be submitted with the application. These must correspond in content and scope to the requirements of a final examination for the artistic diploma or a Master's degree in composition.

The Subject Examination Board for Composition decides on admission to the qualifying examination after reviewing the submitted documents and scores.

2nd step	attendance exam (invitation after passing the 1st step)
----------	--

In a lecture, the candidate presents his or her compositional work, including audio examples (30-40 minutes).
