► Terms and Conditions

Admission

Applicants between the ages of 18 and 35 are eligible to apply for active participation. Exceptions to this rule will be considered by the Head of the Weimar Master Classes only in cases of exceptional musical performance. There is no age limit for passive participation.

The number of participants admitted to the audition is limited. If this limit is reached before the application deadline, the promoter reserves the right to close the application process earlier.

Audition

As a rule, each participant will be expected to perform at the beginning of the master class, upon which the guest professor will decide which applicants can be accepted for active participation. Applicants who are not accepted for active participation may, as is the case with guest students, attend all courses as passive participants. In this case the registration fee will not be refunded. A refund of the registration fee is only possible if a master class must be cancelled by the administration.

Furthermore

- Active participation in more than one course taking place at the same time is not possible.
- Concerts with course participants have been planned, and participants are requested to bring concert attire.
- There are a limited number of rooms for practising available free of charge.
- Special entrance fee for the concerts of 3 Euro for participants.
- By signing up for the masterclasses each student agrees that photographs or videos / recordings of the master classes may be taken and use for non-commercial purposes. All performing rights resulting from visual and sound recordings remain the property of the University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar with temporally and spatially unlimited right of use.
