

PROF. MATTHIAS WOLLONG

Honorary Professor of Violin

Subject/Instrument: Violin

Fürstenhaus - Main Building

@ matthias.wollong\(at\)freenet.de

- At the age of 9 first solo with orchestra
- Following this prizes in children / youth competitions
- With 16 beginning of violin studies at the Academy of Music "Hanns Eisler" Berlin
- Completion of violin studies with Prof. Heinz Schunk in 1984 with a performing degree
- Post of leader by the Rundfunk-Symphony Orchestra Berlin
- From 2000 until 2002 leader of the National Orchestra Berlin
- Since August 2002 leader of the National Orchestra Weimar
- From 1983 until March 2000 member of the string quartet "Petersen-Quartett"
- Performances in most of the world concert venues
- Production of many CDs, some of which were premieres
- In 2000 foundation of the APERTO PIANO QUARTETT with his former quartet colleague Hans-Jakob Eschenburg
- Regular performances as a soloist and chamber musician with fellow well-known musicians including Steven Bishop, Paul Meyer, and Martin Lovett
- In November 2001 performance under the baton of Daniel Barenboim for the Furtwängler-Days in Jena
- Organization of different projects with the European Union Chamber Orchestra
- As manager and soloist of this ensemble concert tours in Germany, countries in Middle and South America as well as England
- Training of next generation musicians in Berlin and Weimar
- Since 2004 Honorary Professor at the University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar

◀ Back to list