

NEWS

Competition on hold: The 6th International FRANZ LISZT Competition for Young Pianists is postponed until March 2021

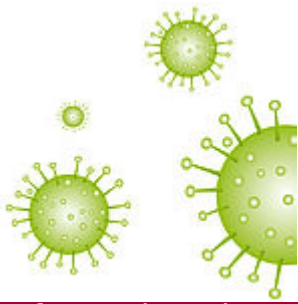

CORONA

At one glance: The University presents recent information on the Corona crisis on a special website

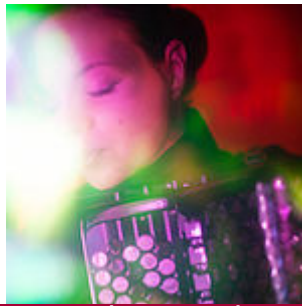

UNIVERSITY OF MUSIC FRANZ LISZT WEIMAR

"Future Music" - Our Vision: artistic, pedagogic, and musicological training | Early support of especially talented young...

Information about the Corona crisis

Prizes and Engagements of Students and Graduates

LISZT University
Society of Friends and Benefactors

6th Int. FRANZ
LISZT Competition
for Young Pianists

10th FRANZ LISZT
Piano Competition
Weimar - Bayreuth

MusIntegrACTION

"A LOSS FOR MUSICAL LIFE": 61ST WEIMAR MASTER CLASSES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MUSIC FRANZ LISZT WEIMAR OFFICIALLY CANCELLED

The University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar deeply regrets having to cancel its international master class series in Weimar due to the Corona crisis. "This must be so painful for our audience, an audience which has been loyal to us for so many years," says Vice president for artistic practice, Prof. Anne-Kathrin Lindig regretfully. Nevertheless,...

#MUSICAGAINSTCORONA: UNIVERSITY OF MUSIC FRANZ LISZT WEIMAR INTRODUCES MUSIC VIDEO SERIES ON THEIR YOUTUBE CHANNEL

Silence might have fallen over the practice rooms and hallways, but even during the Corona crisis, the University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar will not be silenced. As well as home-made clips already on the HfM Facebook channel, the university has now begun with a series of professional videos. Ten new videos of university concerts from last winter...

THE ART OF STORY TELLING: PROF. ANNA GARZULY-WAHLGREN IS APPOINTED NEW PROFESSOR FOR FLUTE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MUSIC FRANZ LISZT WEIMAR

The University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar has appointed Anna Garzuly-Wahlgren as the new professor for flute. Prof. Garzuly-Wahlgren, born in Hungary, has been teaching at the Department of Wind/Brass Instruments and Percussion since the start of the winter semester 2019/2020. "I am so happy to be appointed in Weimar. At the same time, it is a...

CREATING NEW VISIONS: MARTIN STURM IS APPOINTED PROFESSOR OF ORGAN AND ORGAN IMPROVISATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MUSIC FRANZ LISZT WEIMAR

Organist Martin Sturm has been appointed as the youngest professor at the University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar. He has been teaching as a professor of organ and organ improvisation at the Department of Music Education and Church Music since October 2019, following on from Prof. Michael Kapsner. "For me, teaching in Weimar as an organist and...

GREAT SUCCESS FOR WEIMAR CELLO CLASS: FRIEDRICH THIELE WINS SECOND PRIZE AND AUDIENCE'S CHOICE AT THE 68TH INTERNATIONAL ARD MUSIC COMPETITION

This success rounds off an excellent competition year for the cello class of Prof. Wolfgang Emanuel Schmidt at the University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar: On the weekend, the bachelor student in Weimar Friedrich Thiele won the 7,500 Euro second prize and the prize Audience's Choice in the subject of violoncello at the 68th ARD International Music...