

PROMOS

PROMOS = PROgramme for enhancing the MObility of Students

DAAD-information about PROMOS:

In the context of the PROMOS programme, the DAAD is making available financial support for the University of Music FRANZ LISZT Weimar. This enables the support of:

- studies abroad, between 1 and 6 months
- internships abroad, between 6 weeks and 6 months
- language courses abroad, between 3 weeks and 6 months
- specialist courses (master classes/summer courses) up to 6 weeks
- study visits, including competitions and concert tours abroad (at least 5 students); up to 12 days

Students interested in one of these international opportunities need to make a formal application to the LISZT University (to be submitted to the International Office). The relevant form is available to download here. The applications are evaluated by a select committee.
